Initiatives 2019

"Caps for the Future" campaign donates infant incubators to hospitals across Bulgaria

VAPTECH's employees are taking part in national NGO initiative "Plastic Caps for the Future" which aims to get money for baby incubators for Bulgarian hospitals by collecting plastic caps.

The campaign takes care, on one hand, of the environment, and on other hand it helps premature babies, and on yet another hand – it educates people in the spirit of volunteering and changes public attitudes.

New Symphony Orchestra

New Symphony Orchestra (NSO), a private initiative, was created in 1991 as an alternative to the existing musical institutions financially supported and controlled by the state. Throughout the years New Symphony Orchestra has produced its own mode of operation by creating a Society of Friends, dedicated to the welfare of this cultural institution, which is unique in Bulgaria. Hundreds of excellent musicians have started their musical career at NSO and are now performing in orchestras all over the world.
